

Paula Carmody is the People's Counsel for the State of Maryland.

The Maryland Office of People's Counsel is an independent state agency that represents the interests of consumers of utility and energy supplier services in state and federal regulatory and appellate court proceedings.

Ms. Carmody served as President of the National Association of State Utility Consumer Advocates (NASUCA) from 2011 to 2013. She also was a member of the Electricity Advisory Committee of the Department of Energy from 2015-2017, and is an ex officio member of the Maryland Energy Administration's Strategic Energy Investment Fund (SEIF) Advisory Board, and the Maryland Clean Energy Center (MCEC) Advisory Council.

Ms. Carmody has had extensive experience working on consumer issues. She previously served as an Assistant Attorney General in the Consumer Protection Division, Office of the Attorney General of Maryland, and an Assistant People's Counsel. She also was the Managing Attorney of the Baltimore, Maryland office of the UAW-GM Legal Services Plan, and a Staff Attorney with the Legal Aid Bureau, Inc.

Ms. Carmody graduated with a Juris Doctorate degree from Antioch School of Law, Washington, D.C. She received a Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science from McGill University, Montreal, Quebec, Canada.