

Maryland Office of People's Counsel Assistant People's Counsel

The Maryland Office of People's Counsel seeks a creative, energetic attorney to join it in advocating, amid climate change, for the economic and environmental interests of the State's residential consumers of public utility services such as electricity and natural gas. Our attorneys work at the dynamic intersection of energy law, economics, and environmental policy, developing policy positions as well as litigating public utility matters. We work to hold utilities accountable for their performance and to ensure Maryland consumers are protected against unjust and unreasonable rate increases for services, while also advocating for policies that further the State's efforts to reduce greenhouse gas emissions.

Our work includes appearances before the Maryland Public Service Commission, the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, and State and federal appellate courts, as well as testimony before legislative committees. We also participate in state and national-level policy initiatives regarding consumer issues and incorporation of new technologies — including distributed energy resources, renewable generation, and electric vehicles — onto the electric grid.

Qualifications: The ideal candidate will have excellent analytical, writing, and oral advocacy skills. Consumer protection and administrative litigation experience is a plus. Background in or familiarity with utility regulation, economics, engineering, or accounting will enhance the application. Admission to the Maryland Bar will be required.

To apply: Interested persons should submit a cover letter, resume and two writing samples to Lori Sears, Administrator, Office of People's Counsel, 6 St. Paul Street, Suite 2102, Baltimore, Maryland 21202, or via email at lori.sears@maryland.gov.

Completed applications must be received by the close of business on Friday, July 1, 2022.
